

West Virginia Library Association: Government Documents Roundtable
Annual Report 2008
Submitted by Chair Ann W. Henriksson, Shepherd University

GODORT annual meeting

GODORT held its annual meeting at WVU's Wise Library June 5th. A total of 9 depository librarians attended from across the state: Marian Armour-Gemmen, Olivia Bravo, Christine Chang, Robin Chesney, Lois Fundis, Ann Henriksson, Joy Humphries, Majed Kader, and Jennifer Zucarro. Christine reported on the spring depository library conference held in Kansas City. Ann discussed her visit to Capitol Hill with the WVLA delegation for ALA Legislative Day in May. As usual there was a lively discussion of current depository issues and changes to the program as well as brainstorming ideas for the annual conference. Olivia Bravo was unanimously elected the 2009 chair. Everyone was appreciative of WVLA's funding for the refreshments and lunch.

2008 Annual Conference

GODORT will have two programs at the 2008 annual conference: Marian Amour-Gemmen, WVU, will present a session entitled: "Federal Register: Search for Rules that Effect Your Daily Life." Ted Priebe, Director, Library Planning and Development, US Government Printing Office, will present a session entitled "The Future of Government Documents in Libraries."
